Dear Mr. Dulles:

So that you may have an ever-ready reminder of your citation party at The Salvation Army Luncheon at The Waldorf-Astoria on Tuesday, December fifteenth, we are sending you, under separate cover, a copy of Jane Pickens' fine long-playing record of hymns, accompanied by The Salvation Army Chorus.

We deeply appreciate the honor you paid us by being with us on that occasion, and I have heard nothing but warm praise for the fine speech that you made. For my part, I particularly appreciated your wonderful timing, all of which is in complete character as we have learned to know you.

With best wishes for a Very Merry Christmas,
I am ..

Yours sincerely,

William Collins
